3rd Grade Daily Oral Language Practice

APOSTROPHES, DIALOGUE PUNCTUATION, AND COMMONLY CONFUSED WORDS

Name _____ Date _____

Directions: Each sentence has errors in capitalization, punctuation, or word choice. Find every error and write the corrected sentence on the lines below it.

1. grandpas garden is full of tomatoes and sunflowers

2. the dogs bowl is empty so lets fill it with fresh water

3. grab your umbrella because its going to rain mom said

4. their going to the library after school on wednesday

5. we packed sandwiches apples and juice boxes for the picnic

6. yes i finished my homework before dinner

7. did you see the bald eagle at the lake asked ben

8. your going to love the new playground at lincoln park

9. the robin built it's nest in the oak tree and their are three eggs inside

10. what a great catch shouted coach rivera

Answer Key

3rd Grade Daily Oral Language Practice

1. Grandpa's garden is full of tomatoes and sunflowers.
2. The dog's bowl is empty, so let's fill it with fresh water.
3. "Grab your umbrella because it's going to rain," Mom said.
4. They're going to the library after school on Wednesday.
5. We packed sandwiches, apples, and juice boxes for the picnic.
6. Yes, I finished my homework before dinner.
7. "Did you see the bald eagle at the lake?" asked Ben.
8. You're going to love the new playground at Lincoln Park.
9. The robin built its nest in the oak tree, and there are three eggs inside.
10. "What a great catch!" shouted Coach Rivera.